To the Citizens of Lee County:

Once again it is my privilege, on behalf of the Sanford Lions Club, to welcome you to the 1954 Lee County Agricultural Fair.

It is with an unusual pleasure that I send you the 1954 catalogue and premium list. You will find that we have made many changes in our catalogue and list. We have added an ENTRY BLANK which I hope that each of you will use.

We have asked for and received help from each of the communities in our county in the planning of this year's Fair. We have also asked that these people help us to get the citizens of Lee County interested in exhibiting their products and to help us register and display each entry.

In a joint meeting the Farm Leaders, County Agent, Home Demonstration Agent, and the County Agricultural Teachers, helped plan the 1954 Fair, and at this time we pledged our cooperation for a better Fair.

We have built a new livestock barn, 106 feet long and 50 feet wide; this will accommodate the Dairy Cattle, Beef Cattle, Swine and Poultry, all under one roof and is located just back of the Exhibit Hall. N. C. State College Extension Department designed this building and have drawn plans for the continued expansion of your fair grounds and buildings, as more exhibit space is needed.

PLEASE HELP US TO GROW! Bring all the exhibits you can and encourage your neighbors to do the same.

Have a good time at the fair; bring the family and enjoy a week of fun and friendly competition with your neighbors.

Sincerely,
MOSES L. SNIPES,
President of Sanford Lions Club.

To the Citizens of Lee County:

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I welcome you to the Lee County Agricultural Fair of 1954. The Fair is sponsored by the Sanford Lions Club, and will be in operation during the week beginning September 27 and continue through October 2.

This year we are stressing the fact that this is an agricultural fair. We have a new livestock barn and a show room for the animals to be exhibited in. We have revised our beef cattle show completely. We are looking forward to a large number of cattle being exhibited this year.

I wish to urge each of you to look over the premium list and enter as many events and exhibits as you wish. The quantity and quality of exhibits entered through your cooperation and desire for good natured competition with your neighbors make this a successful AGRICULTURAL FAIR.

I wish to express my appreciation to the farmers who have an exhibit at the fair this year and to the support of the advertisers, clubs, civic organizations and all individuals who assist in making the Lee County Fair possible. Also our County Farm Agent, Home Demonstration Agent, Agricultural Teachers, Vocation and Home Economic Teachers and Home Demonstration Clubs.

AND, to the members of the different Fair committees and members of the Lions Club who have assisted me in this tremendous undertaking, my most sincere thanks.

Sincerely yours,

RAY A. WOOD,

Chm. Lee County Agriculture Fair.

To the Advertisers of Lee County:

On behalf of the Sanford Lions Club and myself, I would like to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of you for your splendid cooperation and generosity, making it possible for us to publish the 1954 Lee County Agricultural Fair Catalog.

As you know, the proceeds from this annual event will go to aid the blind, and to sponsor the many charitable causes in our County that we have accepted. Our advertisers make this possible through their unselfish support, and we are deeply appreciative of their time, effort, and financial aid.

To the Farm People of Lee County:

We wish to recommend to you those Firms and Individuals whose advertisements appear throughout this catalog. All of them are more than advertisers to us. They are our friends, advisers, and counselors in their respective fields in which most are leaders. We try in every way to present to our guest the best and finest Fair possible.

Sincerely yours,

CLYDE WOMBLE,

Chairman Fair Catalog.

Subject: A Message to School and Beauty Queens.

Dear Mr. Wood:

Plans for the Beauty Contest, to be held in connection with the Lee County Fair, this year, are being made and with a view to keeping you informed. I have set out below some facts concerning the Contest this year.

As usual the schools in and around this territory will hold their individual beauty contests within their respective schools, and after their selection of a Queen to represent them in the Fair the Queens from all schools will take part in the festivities, beginning with a Parade, bigger and better than last year. Judging of the Contestants for "Miss Lee County" will be at the Fair Grounds on Tuesday night, Sept. 28, 1954, at 9:00 p. m. The winner will be crowned "Miss Lee County" on Tuesday night at 9:00 p. m.

Each of the contestants will have the run of the Fair Grounds for the entire week of the fair with Free Entry to all shows and rides on the Fair Grounds. In addition, all entries will receive gifts and prizes, with the most in prizes going to the Queen and her Runner Up.

The Contestants for each school must be elected by the Student Body of the School, must be in the grades 9th through 12th (No one from 8th or lower and no graduates). May not be and may never have been married. The girls will be required to wear Evening Gowns and these only during the Fair Parade, the Judging and the Crowning.

Schools participating in this contest are Benhaven, Broadway, Greenwood, Boone Trail, Moncure, Goldston, Vass, Cameron, Jonesboro, Sanford, Lillington, Pittsboro, Siler City, Deep River, and Carthage.

Each student in the entire school will be given a free pass to the Fair Grounds Tuesday night for the Judging and Crowning of the Queen. The students will deposit their tickets in the box at the gate with their school name on it, and the school having the largest representation on Tuesday night, based on the number of students attending and allowing for miles traveled, will be awarded a prize as was done last year.

In the event of rain on Tuesday night the judging will be on Wednesday night, and School Children's tickets will be good on that night. However, Children's free tickets are good only on the night of the Judging and the Crowning.

The number enrolled in each school will be determined and printed tickets will be passed out for each school child in the schools previously mentioned.

In addition, the winner in each school will be given a banquet on Tuesday night, and will be interviewed on the local Radio Station on Tuesday evening.

From the response this project received last year we are, on the advice of last year's contestants, continuing this Beauty Contest, with hopes for a bigger and better one than ever before.

As you will recall last year this was a great success, and we are looking forward to a good response this year.

Very truly yours,

DR. J. HAMPTON BYERLY,

Chm. Beauty Contest.

LETTER FROM COUNTY FARM AGENT

To the Farm People of Lee County:

The sponsors of the Lee County Agricultural Fair—the Sanford Lions Club—are working closely with the farm people of Lee County and the agricultural workers to really emphasize the agricultural and homemaking phases of our fair this year.

I would like to urge every farm family to plan now to make at least one exhibit of some kind from the products of their farm and home. Particularly I would urge every farmer and farm boy to exhibit some of their best field crops, livestock, poultry and garden crops.

The new livestock barn will be ready for the fair this fall. It will house the dairy cattle, beef cattle, hogs and poultry. Let's really fill this building up with some of the good livestock and poultry from our farms.

There's a real pride and satisfaction in good competition. It's mighty easy to say—"Well, I've got something better than that at home"—but it takes a little effort to say "I won first or second" prize. We can have a real agricultural fair in Lee County, but it's going to take the wholehearted support of our farm people to make it a reality.

Sincerely,

K. S. HARMON,

County Agent.

LETTER FROM LEE COUNTY HOME AGENT

To the Lee County Women:

The Sanford Lions Club, sponsoring the Lee County Fair is offering a real opportunity to each of you to display your home products. I hope that you will take time and select your best products and proudly display them and compare them with the best products your neighbors have.

I hope that by better exhibits, we will be able to see real progress and improvement being made throughout Lee County. A friendly challenge is offered to the rural people of the County to compete in the spirit of "best Achievement" with our fellow citizens, so let's support our fair and make it the best ever.

Sincerely yours,

JULIA A. HOYLE,

County Home Agent.
